

Marlene Pauls Laucht

Marlene Pauls Laucht is a well known Winnipeg pianist, teacher, adjudicator, examiner, and clinician. She maintains a home studio and is a founding member on the faculty at the Manitoba Conservatory of Music and Arts. She works extensively as a professional accompanist, collaborating with singers, instrumentalists and choirs in concerts, recitals, masterclasses, examinations and festivals. Adjudicating at numerous festivals, Marlene also conducts workshops, including topics on pedagogy for piano teachers, achieving performance excellence and selecting repertoire for festivals and examinations.

Ms. Pauls Laucht was instrumental in the creation of the Associated Manitoba Arts Festivals Adjudicator Training and Apprenticeship Program and helps them train new adjudicators at local festivals. Marlene Pauls Laucht is an examiner for the RCM Examinations system.